May 18, 2010

Proclamation of "Steven B. and Kathryn Sample Week"

Dr. Steven B. and Kathryn Sample have led the University of Southern California (USC) as its 10th president and first lady with style, substance, dignity, grace, and elegance since 1991. They have been instrumental in enhancing every aspect of USC, and have extended the university's reach to the greater Los Angeles County community through its two campuses. Their example has inspired a culture of community service that is shared by the university's students, faculty, staff, and friends.

Dr. Sample and his wife have been a shining example of dedication and thoughtfulness to the students, faculty, and staff of USC, as well as to the business, government, and educational partners of the university worldwide. Their commitment for the past 19 years is commendable, and one of the reasons that USC has helped the communities surrounding its campuses flourish and thrive.

THEREFORE I MOVE THAT THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS:

Declare the week of May 16, 2010 through May 22, 2010 as Steven B. and Kathryn Sample Week in the County of Los Angeles and thank them for their many years of service to the community.
